

BUCKET LESSONS

Sharing Bucketfilling Ideas

Lesson #7, April 2009

Filling the earth's bucket

This lesson is designed to raise awareness of ways a child can protect and improve the environment.

You may be surprised at the discussion that follows this bucketfilling exercise.

We'd love to share your bucketfilling idea or ideas with our readers.

Be sure to include:

1. Your name, city and state
2. Name of your school
3. Grade and subject you teach
4. Photo(s) (optional) that illustrate your lesson(s)

1. Give each student a sheet of paper entitled

THINGS I ENJOY OUTDOORS

2. Allow five minutes for them to list the things they like about being outdoors.
3. Ask the children to read aloud one thing from their lists that hasn't been suggested. Write these on the board.
4. Working from this list, discuss with your class how they can protect what they enjoy about their environment and "fill the earth's bucket."
