In March, I had the pleasure of co-presenting a workshop and keynote address on bucket filling for the Southern Early Childhood Association (SECA) with one of my heroes, internationally-known children's singer/songwriter Red Grammer. It filled our buckets to hear that so many educators from the 14 southeastern states in the U.S. were using Red's collection of music and bucket filling in their classrooms.

For more than thirty years, thousands of teachers around the world have used Red's songs to enhance their social/emotional/character ed programs. His recordings have won numerous Parents' Choice Awards and a Grammy nomination.

Two years ago, Red created Circle of Light: Songs for Bucket Fillers, which uses the bucketfilling language. His uplifting music and message take bucket filling to a new level and gets into the heart and soul of a person, creating a delightful atmosphere of kindness and happiness.

Red's Circle of Light CD and download card are available at our Bucket Fillers Shop. His entire collection of music is available at www.redgrammer.com.

Enjoy listening and watching as Red sings, along with sign language, a piece from one of his Circle of Light songs, titled, Power to Change the World.

Happy Bucket Filling,
